WELCOME TO PARKSIDE CRAIG JOHNSON

Good afternoon, and a warm welcome back to Parkside for at last a home league game! I am pleased to welcome our friends the Officials, Management and Players of Romford Football Club, along with our Match Officials, who we hope to have a good game, enjoy our hospitality, and have a safe journey home.

I hope you all had a lovely Christmas, and if you were here on Boxing Day, then I am sure the lads improved it no matter how good a festive period you were having. To dispose of your local rivals in the way we did was a joy to behold. To see their fans streaming out with 15 minutes to go was a sight to see. However, that was 48 hours ago, and needs to go into the memory bank now and we must continue to look forward. Jamie no doubt will have a comprehensive match report for you deeper into this programme.

Romford come here to today, after a 6-week period of publicity, with the recent takeover, but not having played too much football during that time. It is difficult to predict what sort of team they will have on show today after many signings during this period. One thing we can be sure of they will be motivated and eager to bring us down to earth.

As this is the first game since our FA Trophy exploits over Carshalton, and our only game here before we take on another Step 3 team in Hornchurch in the 2nd Round proper of the FA Trophy .... still can't believe I just wrote that!! would urge you all to spread the word and get as many Millers fans over to Bridge Avenue on January 11th. You do really make a difference and I know the lads really appreciate your efforts.

In between today and then though we have another small matter of a visit to Maldon & Tiptree, the team of the season in our division this year. I know Keith and the lads are really looking forward to this game, as they feel they have a score to settle in that they didn't perform in the corresponding home game earlier this season.

An update on the injury front, it appears to be good news with both George Allen and James Good back in training and looking likely to figure in the next 23's fixture at Ware on the 8th January.

Meanwhile, hopefully David Hughes return is imminent, although James Scammell has performed very well in his absence.

All that is left now is to hope we can finish the decade on a high today, and we witness a good game of football.

In the meantime, I hope you all have a Happy and Prosperous New Year, drive safely if you are on the road, and we look forward to welcoming you all back to Parkside on Monday 13th of January when high flying Bury Town are our visitors.

C'mon u Millers!

16.

First half headed goals from George Sykes and Harry Gibbs were enough for The Millers to hold on and see out a 2-0 victory which puts us into the last 32 where we will have a local derby against Isthmian Premier League side Hornchurch on Saturday 11th January.

We started the game off well as Alex Akrofi got in down the left hand side, he opted to go for goal but couldn't angle it to get it on target and it went wide of the goal.

After eight minutes, we took the lead, the ball was being passed around between Wyan Reid and Jonathan Nzengo, before Wyan crossed perfectly into the box, it was met by George Sykes who directed his header into the left hand side of the goal. Aveley 1-0 Carshalton.

David Hughes wasn't in much action of the game, but he was forced into a comfortable save after 20 minutes as he tipped over a long ranged effort from Tommy Bradford. From the resulting corner the visitors came the closest they did all game as it was met at the near post as Pappoe flicked his header past everyone and towards the goal, but luckily for us it went wide of our left hand post.

On 35 minutes we doubled our lead, and a deep case of Déjà vu set in. A corner from Jason Raad was missed by everyone but Harry Gibbs who met the set-piece at the back post unmarked to nod into an empty net. The Millers led 2-0, same scorer who put us 2-0 up in the first game on the previous Saturday. Aveley 2-0 Carshalton.

We looked for the third with a few minutes in the first half remaining, the ball came to Jason Raad on the edge of the area but his curling effort towards the top right hand corner was saved by the visiting keeper.

Half Time | Aveley 2-0 Carshalton.

MATCH REPORT FA TROPHY IST ROUND REPLAY MONDAY 16TH DECEMBER 2019

Alex Akrofi played a nice through ball for George Sykes who was through on goal, but from a narrow angle his effort was towards the near post which was being guarded by the keeper.

The game lacked the same intensity as Saturday, which could've worked in our favour. The visitors passed the ball around the backline until they seemed to get bored of that and lump it forward to Harry Ottaway who dominates the air and wins almost everything up top, but both Jack Mochalski and Harry Gibbs stood strong against it.

David Hughes was called into rare action with fifteen minutes to go, he brilliantly commanded his area as he slid and won the ball at the full backs feet, but in doing so, he collided with both Sam Mvemba and Carshalton's Jeremiah Amoo and come off worse from it. Hughesy seemed to have recovered until the last few minutes of the game when he was forced to come off with Under 23 Goalkeeper Daniel Blockley coming on for his debut, in what is one of the biggest games in the Clubs recent histroy, so there was no pressure...

With three minutes to go the Carshalton goalkeeper should've received a red card, Alex Akrofi raced in on goal, tapped it around the keeper who brought him down, last man and denied a goalscoring opportunity, but only a yellow card was awarded. Despite that the seconds ticked away and the Millers got a clean sheet to reach the last 32 of the Buildbase UK FA Trophy.

Full Time | Aveley 2-0 Carshalton Athletic.

LAST ROUND OF 32! HORNCHURCH VS THE MILLERS

44 44

SATURDAY 11TH JANUARY, 3PM K.O BRIDGE AVENUE, RM14 2LX

MATCH REPORT ISTHMIAN LEAGUE NORTH SATURDAY 2IST DECEMBER 2019

The Millers picked up a vital point on the road against a decent Canvey Island side at Park Lane on Saturday after a late own goal from former Aveley loannee Dan humphreys.

Despite a late pitch inspection which took place when the match referee arrived the Park Lane surface played well despite obvious concerns due to the amount of rain. Both sides said they wanted it to go ahead so we thankfully had a game on.

Millers keeper David Hughes misseed out, so started James Scammell who joined the Millers on dual registration from Essex Senior League side Woodford Town. The hosts made one change with Kane Gilbert replaced by former-Miller Sam Banktick. The Gulls could boast many a Millers with Lamar Johnson, Dan Humphreys, George Woodward, Michael Finneran, Alex Stephenson and Sam Bantick all in the starting line-up. Where as, we started with George Sykes, the ex-Canvey Island striker scored 57 goals in 130 plus games for The Gulls.

Just after ten minutes the hosts took the lead, Tobi Joseph went on a strong run down the left hand side, went down under a challenge from Jonathan Nzengo, the referee waved play on as the ball fell to George Woodward (Ex-Miller), who fired into Scammell's bottom right hand corner of the goal, his first goal for Canvey in his second appearance.

The hosts carried on there control of the game as a long ranged effort from Levett went wide of the top left hand corner. After that we slowly grew into the game, Jonathan Nzengo fired wide from a tight angle.

Millers' keeper James Scammell was forced into a save as he palmed away a goal-bound George Woodward free-kick as the hosts took their lead into half time.

Half Time | Canvey Island 1-0 Aveley.

MATCH REPORT ISTHMIAN LEAGUE NORTH SATURDAY 2IST DECEMBER 2019

The Millers weren't at the same level as they were before, but the second half was a much more improved performance as seen in recent weeks. We had most of the ball but the hosts were tough to break down as they defended in their numbers to hold onto their lead.

Wyan Reid found Alex Akrofi in the box with a cross, but Alex Akrofi couldn't get the ball on target as he fired across the goal and out for a goal kick. Ex-Miller Lamar Johnson was forced into action as he tipped the ball over the bar from an over-hit free-kick.

We almost scored with ten minutes left as Wyan Reid's cross found centre half Harry Gibbs, he just about connected with it but could only find the side netting of the goal.

It might have looked like we couldn't get back into the game, but with five minutes to go a cross from the right was turned into his own goal from Dan Humpheys. Canvey Island 1-1 Aveley.

We almost stole all three points as a flicked header at the near post found Harry Gibbs at the back post, he then looped his header onto the roof of the net but in the end it was a point gained rather than two dropped at Park Lane.

Full Time | Canvey Island 1-1 Aveley.

Millers XI | James Scammell, Jonathan Nzengo, Sam Mvemba, Connor Witherspoon, Harry Gibbs, Perry Dunn, Wyan Reid (Jack Mochalski 88), Shad Ngandu, George Sykes (Tony Martin 69), Jason Raad, Alex Akrofi.

Unused Subs | Connor Martin, David Servietis.

Canvey Island XI | Lamar Jonhson, Dan Humphreys, George Woodward, James White, Michael Finneran, Alex Stephenson, Sam Bantick, Albert Levett, Jason Hallett (Kane Gilbert 81), Rob Lacey (Matt Lock 81), Tobi Joseph.

Unused Subs | Josh Hutchinson, Sam Dulieu, Zack Littlejohn.

MATCH REPORT ISTHMIAN LEAGUE NORTH THURSDAY 26TH DECEMBER 2019

Despite the awful weather conditions, The Millers put on a spectacle at Parkside against local rivals Grays Athletic. It's always a tough game against Grays, but Aveley dominated from start to finish after a hat-trick from Shad Ngandu and goals from George Sykes, Alex Akrofi and Tony Martin.

We started the game on the front foot and that's how it was for the whole game. Jonathan Nzengo had a driving run forward but fired his effort wide of the goal. George Sykes linked with Alex Akrofi but Alex was denied by a last-ditch block from Lewis Clark. George Sykes was then next to try his luck as he picked up the ball from 20 yards out and he was denied by Danny Sambridge.

Clearly George Sykes was just testing out his shooting range as the next attack of the game came as George Sykes picked the ball up around 25 yards out and found the top left-hand corner of the goal, outstanding finish to give us the lead. Grays Athletic 0-1 Aveley.

On 20 minutes we should've doubled our lead from a chance from a corner kick. Jason Radd played it short to Alex Akrofi who fizzed in the cross to Harry Gibbs who, under pressure, just squeezed his effort an inch over the crossbar.

We didn't have long to wait for the second goal though, a ball into the box to Alex Akrofi saw Dexter Peter block the run of Alex Akrofi and the referee awarded the penalty. Shad Ngandu stepped up and rolled the ball into the back of the net to double our lead. Grays Athletic 0-2 Aveley.

The Millers could've had a couple more penalties in the first half, the first on Jason Raad as he was clipped about three times but stayed on his feet but saw his effort blocked. Alex Akrofi then had his legs taken from him, looked like a clear penalty but the red-hot forward got back to his feet and forced a save from Danny Sambridge.

We had three more chances to get a third at the end of the first half. The first, Jason Raad collected the ball on the edge of the area and fired an effort over the crossbar. The second felt like a bizarre passage of play, Grays just let us pass it around them without any kind of press or effort, George Sykes then dribbled past three players to make himself some space before just firing an effort wide of the left-hand post. The third chance was Jason Raad again, a free-kick about 22 yards out, he stepped up and smacked the crossbar with the ball bouncing to safety.

Half Time | Grays Athletic 0-2 Aveley.

MATCH REPORT ISTHMIAN LEAGUE NORTH THURSDAY 26TH DECEMBER 2019

The points were well and truly wrapped up on the hour mark as Wyan Reid's tenacious play won the ball back and played through Alex Akrofi brilliantly who raced in on goal and slotted past Sambridge. Grays Athletic 0-3 Aveley.

Six minutes after our third, we bagged our four, which was Shad Ngandu's second of his three on the day. Ryan Sammons already on a yellow card took out Jason Raad after he dribbled past him and looked to fire towards goal. The referee pointed to the spot, Shad Ngandu stepped up and he made no mistake. Grays Athletic 0-4 Aveley.

Tony Martin came on for his second home debut and made an impact straight away as he found the back of the net with his first touch, unfortunately he was denied the goal by the linesman's flag as he was adjudged to have been in an offside position.

Two minutes after that goal was flagged offside, we made it 5-0. Shad Ngandu picked up the ball 25 yards out, lined up to shoot and found the top left-hand corner of the goal for his hat-trick goal and his 9th goal of the season. Grays Athletic 0-5 Aveley.

Five minutes left in the game and we got our SIXTH, Wyan Reid raced down the righthand side, centred into the box where Tony Martin was and he smashed the ball into the goal for his first goal back in an Aveley shirt since his move from Essex Senior League side Redbridge. Grays Athletic 0-6 Aveley.

Tony Martin then had the ball in the back of the net for the third time in the space of ten minutes but Alex Bragg was adjudged to be just offside in the build-up of the goal.

Grays did get the consolation as the ball came to ex-Miller Joao Carlos who chested it down and belted it in from over 30 yards out which gave the hosts something to cheer about on a disappointing day for them. Grays Athletic 1-6 Aveley.

§ ROMFORD CLUB HISTORY §

The original Romford was established in 1876. They reached the quarter-finals of the FA Cup in 1880–81, but lost 15–0 at Darwen. There was no league football for them to play until they joined the South Essex League in 1896. An internal dispute saw several committee and players leave to form a new club in 1909, called Romford United and competing directly against Romford in the South Essex League at a ground literally across the road. The original club continued under new management and joined the Southern League while still playing in the South Essex League, but played only a single season before leaving.

The new regime at the original club proved disastrous, being expelled from the South Essex League during the 1910–11 season and subsequently folding, leaving Romford United as the only club with the town's name. They changed to Romford Town and joined the Athenian League, but finished bottom in their first season and left at the end of their second, before closing down during World War I. Romford Town had remained members of the South Essex League and returned to action after the war, but lack of support saw them withdraw in December 1920 and fold. For the rest of the 1920s the only club under the Romford name was Romford Town Thursday, playing on Thursday afternoons at Brooklands, a ground previously used by Romford's reserve team.

In 1929 the club was re-established. Taking over the use of the Brooklands stadium, they joined the London League. In 1931 they moved to the Athenian League, which they won in 1935–36 and 1936–37. Following World War II the club transferred to the Isthmian League. In 1948–49 they reached the final of the FA Amateur Cup, but lost 1–0 to Bromley in front of 100,000 spectators in the first final to be held at Wembley. In 1959 they switched to Division One of the Southern League. They were promoted to the Premier Division in their first season after finishing second, and won the Premier Division in 1966–67. The club made several applications to join the Football League, but were never successful in the elections. In 1974–75 they finished second bottom of the Premier Division, and were relegated to Division One. By this time the club had developed Brooklands considerably in anticipation of eventually being elected to the Football League and had large debts to show for it, and had to sell Brooklands in 1975 but remained until 1977. After a season of borrowing grounds to play home matches they resigned from the Southern League and folded in 1978, with the building work on a new ground barely started and hardly any money left.

In 1992 the club was resurrected for a second time and joined the Essex Senior League. They won the league in 1995–96, and in the summer merged with Collier Row (with whom they had been groundsharing since April) to form Collier Row & Romford. The new club took Collier Row's place in Division Two of the Isthmian League, which they won in their first season. In the summer of 1997 they were renamed Romford.

In 2000–01 they finished second bottom of Division One and were relegated to Division Two. After finishing bottom the following season they resigned to go back to the Essex Senior League. They returned to the Isthmian League after winning the Senior League in 2008–09, and remained in Division One North for over a decade. Despite a difficult year in 2017–18, they were able to survive despite being five points adrift with just two games remaining.

The following season they found themselves in a possibly even worse situation as they were nine points short of safety with five games remaining, but staged a late recovery only to fall short on goal difference behind Witham Town. However the knock-on effect of the mid-season demise of North Ferriby United meant Romford were reprieved from relegation to fill the vacancy. In November 2019, the club was bought by former Billericay Town owner Glenn Tamplin, who immediately sacked the existing manager Paul Martin and appointed himself in his place.

Stadium: The club has led a nomadic existence, playing at seventeen home grounds during its history although most of these have been emergency arrangements when their established home ground was unavailable for various reasons. When the club reformed in 1992 it began playing at the Hornchurch Stadium, before moving to Ford United's Rush Green ground in 1995. In April 1996 they moved to Collier Row's Sungate ground, and the clubs merged during the summer. The spell at Sungate was fraught with problems and there were frequent and protracted periods when Romford had to borrow other grounds to play home matches owing to problems with the facilities at Sungate. In December 2001 they left Sungate for good and played at several different stadiums in order to complete the season. They returned to Rush Green in 2002 (as Ford United had left to groundshare with Barkingside). They remained there until 2008, when they moved to Aveley's Mill Field ground.

In 2009 it was announced that the club had been given permission to build a new stadium on the Westlands Playing Fields on London Road, however, building work has yet to commence as planning permission has had to be re-applied for as the original permission expired while awaiting government approval for the change of use.

Romford began sharing with Thurrock at Ship Lane in 2012 but were required to move to East Thurrock United's Rookery Hill in 2018 when Thurrock folded and the ground was closed. This arrangement was only in place for one year however, and it was arranged for Romford to move rather closer to home for the 2019–20 season and share with Brentwood Town.

PARKSIDE POTTS

Greetings readers, I hope you had a fantastic Christmas, but before you think about Auld Lang Syne, we have a big game today with free spending Romford (now there's a sentence, I didn't think I'd ever write). The games are coming thick and fast over the holiday period, with today's game following on from our Boxing Day bust up with tenant's Grays Athletic. As this was typed up before the game, I can't give you any analysis on the game, other than I'm sure we were the better footballing side.

As we all know, Glenn Tamplin has taken over at Romford as owner and manager and is hell bent on getting them promoted. I would have to say, that I would imagine the he will throw the kitchen sink at it next year, as getting into the top five this season may well be out of his reach, not that I think for one minute that he'll agree with me.

Romford are unfortunate, in so far as their ground sharing agreement with Brentwood has come back to bite them a fair bit. As we know Brentwood's pitch isn't the greatest, add to that all the rain we have been having of late and it was always going to be a recipe for disaster, with games being postponed (for both clubs) left, right and centre. Hopefully, we can have a dry spell soon, to allow both clubs to catch up on their fixtures.

The Romford side today will be full of decent players, of that there can be no doubt, with the possibility that some more big money signings will be made after I have typed these notes. So, I will not even hazard a guess as to how their team will line up. I can however be more confident of naming our side, as of late it has had a very familiar ring to it most weeks. Hopefully David Hughes made the Boxing Day fixture and assuming he had no adverse effects will take his place in goal this afternoon, David is now starting to show the potential we knew he had when he arrived from Harlow Town last season.

As you are obviously aware we have had a glut of away games of late, only punctuated with the Carshalton Athletic replay that we won 2-0 to produce a nightmare 2nd round proper tie with AFC Hornchurch, I will continue to call them that, because unfortunately the original Hornchurch went bust, so it's always AFC to me.

We began our run of away games with two memorable 4-1 wins over Biggleswade in a prior round of the Trophy, we had a bit of luck as Biggleswade were going through a bit of a manager/player crisis at the time, but we took full advantage and won the game at a bit of a canter. The same can also be said of our league game away at Cambridge City, with returning new boy Perry Dunn marking his third debut with the club, with a thumping header in the first minute to again put us on the road to an easy ish 4-1 win.

Since then the games have become progressively harder, a very workmanlike performance over Great Wakering Rovers was won in the first half with an opportunist strike from Big George Sykes, who is slowly turning into the signing of the season. We had to dig in for long periods of the game but came away with the three points which is all that matters at this stage of the season.

Next were our couple of games with Carshalton Athletic, the first of which I reviewed in my notes in the programme for the replay. If the first game was a cracker, then the second may have been even better, as this time there was no come back, those of you that thought we could not have played any better than the original game were proved wrong, as the replay appeared to be a carbon copy of the first, as we again raced into a two goal lead. Again, Carshalton appeared to have no answer to Jason Raad in midfield, as he ran the game in the same way he ran the first.

The Canvey Island game last week, was a bit of an 'After the Lord Mayor Show' affair. We of course were without David Hughes after his injury in the Carshalton game, but his emergency replacement James Scammell proved an able deputy coming in as cover for the game. I think most of us would have taken a draw before kick-off, which is exactly what we got, after a one sided second half, saw a delicious slice of irony as disgraced ex-Miller Dan Humphrey put through his own goal with five minutes remaining to deny Canvey the three points, which with so many ex-Millers in their number would have been a bitter pill to swallow.

So let's get behind the boys today, whether it's from the side or behind the goal with the Chairman and the Sons of Aveley, make some noise so we can hopefully take all three points today to increase our play-off hopes and keep Romford bottom for at least one more week.

Enjoy the game.
